DR. LOUIS LANDMAN, optician, of Cincinnati, will be at the Hotel Windsor to-day.

WANTED.—Second-hand buckboard in good repair. Address, Lock-box 330, Paris, Ky. (2t)

THE Monday Night Literary Club met last night with Miss Lucy Lowry, on South Main street.

MISS MARIE VON HIPPEL will open her embroidery class Thursday morning at Mrs. Nannie Brown's store.

JOE BRUNER, of Winchester, will open a grocery in this city in the building lately occupied by the Paris Cash Grocery.

HENRY A. BUTLER, who recently sold his grocery business in this city, has accepted a position as conductor on the Southern Pacific Railroad.

THE NEWS is requested to state that the Christian Church Society will meet Saturday, at three p. m., and all members are urged to be present.

ANNIE RISK, and Lizzie Coleman, colored damsels, were each assessed $7.50 yesterday in Judge Webb's court for indulging in a fist fight Sunday.

Former Parisian Dr. David Keller, now City Physician at Lexington, stated Friday in his report to the General Council that the death of six children in Lexington during January was due to absolute and unconditional neglect.

The city council of Mt. Sterling passed a curfew ordinance Tuesday day night. All persons under eighteen years of age must have written permission if they are alone on the streets after 8:30 p. m. in winter and 9 p. m. in summer.

THOS. C. WILLIAMS, formerly of this city and Millersburg, was adjudged insane Friday at Mt. Sterling and sent to the asylum at Lexington. He was until recently a traveling salesman for Flach Bros., of Cincinnati. He is a native of Bath county.

The Methodist Church was filled Sunday afternoon with a congregation to hear Mrs. Chika Sakurai of Tokio, Japan. She was dressed in the costume of her native country, and gave an interesting account of her work. She will remain a guest of Mrs. Meghan until Thursday.

MRS. CHIKA SAKURAI, of Tokio, Japan, will address the Women's Club of Paris, to-morrow afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, at the rooms of the Club. Subject: "The Customs and Manners of the Japanese." Mrs. Sakurai will also offer for sale a limited quantity of lacquered ware, preferring to defray her expenses in this way rather than to appropriate any of the funds subscribed to the institution she represents.

Special Rates On The L. &amp; N.

STATE DISTRICT MEETING, K. of P., Feb. 17-20, Lexington, Ky., one and one-third fare, for the round trip.

Annual State Convention Y. M. C. A., Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 18-21, one fare for round-trip. F. B. CARR, Agent.

Rev. Eberhardt's Meeting.

REV. EBERHARDT returned Friday from Louisville where he conducted a revival which continued nearly three weeks. There was a large attendance at each service, and the meeting resulted in twenty-six additions. Rev. Eberhardt's splendid work was highly appreciated.

Mrs. Harris' Horse Sale.

TWELVE trotting-bred horses, the property of Mrs. Ira Harris, were sold at public sale Saturday in this city by auctioneer Geo. Doehrer for $275, an average of $22.75. The highest price paid was $58 for a brown gelding by Scarlet Wilkes. The horses were by Royal Fearnaught, Scarlet Wilkes, Aley-one and Glenwood.

Glenkenney Postoffice Robbed.

The postoffice at Glenkenney, (Kenney Station) on the L. &amp; N., three miles from this city, was burglarized Friday night. The robbers secured about forty dollars worth of stamps, besides taking an overcoat, a rifle and a lot of groceries from the grocery kept in the same building by James Flora, who is also the postmaster.

A New Clothing Store.

PRICE &amp; CO. will open a clothing store in the store-room opposite Frank &amp; Co.'s about March 1st. The business will be conducted by Mr. Ike L. Price, well-known in this city, who writes to THE NEWS that he will move his family here about March 15th. Mr. Price invites the patronage of all his former friends.

Former Parisian James R. McCann.

THE leading man of "The Shadows of a Great City" Co., which play will be seen at the Grand Opera House, in this city, next Tuesday night, is James R. McCann, who plays the part of "Tom Cooper."

Mr. McCann is a native of Paris, having spent the best part of his life here, where he has a host of friends who will see that he receives a most cordial reception on the above date. For eight years he was the leading man and stage manager for W. J. Scanlan, and was specially engaged for a California tour with Roland Reed. He has made rapid strides in his profession and the prediction is that the opera house will be filled to its capacity on Tuesday night next.

Farewell Meeting At Methodist Church.

A LARGE crowd attended the farewell service at the Methodist Church Sunday night. Only five persons are left of all who composed the congregation when the present church was built, in 1860. They are Squire Selby Lilliston, Mrs. Evaline Flanagan, Mrs. Eliza Phillips, Mrs. Bettie Shaw and Mrs. Rachel Crosthwait. At the last service the pastor, Rev. E. G. B. Mann, read a sketch of the church's history from the beginning in 1860 to the present. Also read letter of friendly greeting from Mr. J. D. Hearne. The first Methodist house of worship in Paris was begun in 1817. The present one was erected in 1860, and the new church now being built was begun in November, 1896. Interesting talks were made by Mrs. Flanagan, Mr. Lilliston, Col. Jno. G. Craddock, Mr. Hugh Brent, Rev. E. H. Rutherford and Rev. F. J. Cheek. The old building will be torn down at once, the material having been sold to the contractors.

Services will be held in the Court-House while the new church is being erected.

The new church is being erected on the corner of Seventh and Pleasant streets, and it is expected that the corner stone will be laid in about a month. The new house of worship will be of gray stone and will have a frontage of 63 feet, 9 inches, and will extend 100 feet toward Main street. The tower will be sixty feet high and the main building about forty feet high. On the corner of Seventh and Pleasant street will be a double entrance twenty feet square, and a side entrance will be located on Seventh street. The North, South and East sides will each contain a bay window of art glass, and several memorial windows will add to the beauty of the church. Col. J. G. Craddock announced Sunday night that he would give a window in memory of his mother and sister who were members of the present Methodist church. Fletcher Bros., of Cincinnati, have the contract for building the new church. One member of the firm is now in Paris to superintend the work.

A Narrow Escape.

W. M. PURNELL narrowly escaped being the victim of a dangerous accident yesterday afternoon. He had gone into the stable at his home, and a negro boy who was in the loft threw a pitchfork down below, not knowing that Mr. Purnell was in the stable. The pitchfork just missed Mr. Purnell's head and made a painful flesh wound in one of his limbs.

Home Grown Bananas.

M. MORAT, the enterprising florist at the Paris cemetery, has succeeded in cultivating a bunch of bananas in his green house, and had them on exhibition yesterday at Mrs. Nannie Brown's store. There were four bananas on the bunch—each four inches long.

Notice To The Public.

I HAVE arranged with Dr. John Adair to take charge of my office until I am able to resume my practice. Dr. Adair will attend to all unfinished work and such other work as my patrons may desire.

Very respectfully,
(9feb-2t) DR. R. A. SPRAKE.

How many deaths can be traced to a "slight cold"? The record of mortality would be greatly reduced if every home was supplied with a bottle of Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. The great exterminator of coughs, cold, croup and kindred affections.

The fourth annual midwinter declamatory contest was held in Cynthiaia Friday night, composed of representatives from the different colleges of Central Kentucky. The first prize was given to T. H. Ballard, of Kentucky University, subject: "By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them;" second prize to B. H. Conner, of Cynthiaia, of Mrs. L. C. Brock's elocution school.

SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 18 Re-established. SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 18, usually called Harrods Creek District, was abolished last year and divided among the three neighboring districts for three or four reasons, viz: Attendance averaged only ten; house needed repairs; the difficulty in securing even one or two trustees; and the fact, as given by one of the trustees, that no child was more than two miles from a neighboring school. The assurance was given, however, that the district would be re-established as soon as these hindrances to success could be removed. The promise is now given that they will be removed before the beginning of another session. Therefore, No. 18 is re-established as a School District.

OBITUARY.

Respectfully Dedicated To The Memory Of The Dead.

John James, aged seventy-six, brother of Samuel T. James, of this city, died Sunday at Canton, Mo. He had been a sufferer for seven years from a paralytic stroke. He leaves four grown children, whose mother was Mrs. Lizzie McKim James.

Mr. Wm M. Hopkins, a young Bourbon county farmer and a most excellent young man, will be married on the 24th to Miss Pauline Clavell, a most estimable young lady of Nicholas. The groom-elect is a step-brother of attorney J. M. McVey, of this city.

Mrs. Lizzie Parker Innman, wife of George Innman, died of consumption Wednesday at her home in Frankfort. She is survived by her husband and two children. The deceased was a sister of Mrs. Dan Roche, and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Mamie Parker, of this city.

Mrs. Garnet Ashbrook Berninger, daughter of Capt. I. T. Ashbrook, formerly of this city, now of Louisville, died Friday in Chicago. The remains were interred at Louisville Sunday afternoon. The deceased will be remembered by many Paris friends who knew lovely traits of character.

Mrs. Mary C. Murphy, the aged mother of Mr. Benj. Perry, of this city, died yesterday afternoon in Cincinnati after an illness of several years duration. She was sixty-eight years old and by her first marriage leaves two sons—Mr. Ben Perry, of this city, and Mr. Ellis Perry, of Cincinnati. Her second husband survives her with three married daughters—Mrs. Wm Atkinson, of Chicago, Mrs. Walter West, of Cincinnati, and Mrs. George Ott, of Newport.

February Weather.

REV. IRL HICKS, who hit center with his January forecast, predicts cloudy, sleety, disagreeable weather for this week. This will be followed by a cold wave on the 14th. It will then be some warmer and a snow-storm will be experienced on the 17th. Very active storms, ending in blizzards and extremely cold waves, may be looked for from the 17th to the 23d. The remainder of the month will be warmer but stormy. Mr. Hicks predicts that the worst winter weather will come in February and March, and that very deep snows will come in March, and unseasonable weather will prevail until after the full moon in April.
